THE VENEZUELAN ECONOMY

Second Semester 2017

In terms of crude oil, the oil cut agreement between the OPEC countries and 10 independent oil producers – totaling 24 countries – enabled oil prices to climb in the second semester of 2017, with Venezuelan oil going from an average of US$ 43.63 per barrel in the first semester to US$ 49.92, a rise of US$ 6.3 per barrel in such term and US$ 10 per barrel when compared to the same term of 2016.

According to OPEC sources, the Venezuelan production closed in 1.622 mbd, decreasing by 29% when compared to the previous year. International reserves, which balance was US$ 9,524 million at the close of 2017, declined by US$ 483 million in the semester and by US$ 1.453 billion in the year.

On the other hand, the exchange policy remained adopting several types of exchange rates, the preferential rate of Bs./US$ 10 (Exchange Agreement No. 35), used for priority goods of the basic basket (food and medicine) and a DICOM rate, which was valid until May and averaged Bs./US$ 703,24 (Exchange Agreement No. 33) until the validity date. In June, a new alternative system for the acquisition of foreign currency (DICOM) was implemented. This completely electronically system works through auctions and manages the exchange rate through bands. The DICOM is ruled by the Exchange Agreement No. 38 and started at an initial rate of Bs./US$ 2,010. The last auction called in 2017 was on August 31 and the resulting exchange rate was Bs./US$ 3,345, implying a devaluation of 21% in the second semester and 80% in the year. The total amount awarded to individuals and legal entities through the DICOM in 2017 was US$ 390 million.

The fiscal policy remained expansive, with 3 salary increases in the second semester, reaching a variation of 173% in the minimum wage, totaling 5 salary adjustments in the year for 555%, along with increases in food vouchers, causing a variation in the integral minimum wage of 128% in the second semester and 403% in the year. These adjustments were made to all wage scales of the Public Administration, weather centralized or decentralized. Thus, fiscal spending in the second semester reached Bs. 32,000 billion, increasing 644% with respect to the same period in 2016, for a yearly total of Bs. 40,000 billion, 600% above 2016.

As for fiscal revenue collected by the Venezuelan Tax Administration – SE-NIAT, they rose to Bs. 20,599 billion, jumping by 517% in the year, where Value-Added Tax (VAT) revenues represented the largest portion of the total (55%), with an increase of 492% during the tax year, while Large Financial Transactions Tax (IGTF) accounting for 12% of the total ended the period with Bs. 2,399 billion.

The fiscal impact was evident on monetary aggregates, the increase of the monetary base was 1,737% in the year according to preliminary data, supporting the growth shown by the monetary liquidity of 1,121%, which was partially caused by the credit activity by 585.3%. This excess of liquidity caused a shallow interbank market in the year, which transactions were 76% lower than those of 2016 and an average rate (0.76%) lower by 384 base points.

BANKING SYSTEM

At the close of 2017, the number of banking institutions remains the same as 2016, 31 in total, 24 of private capital and 7 state-owned, with the sub-sector of universal and commercial banks concentrating the largest percentage of the market assets (98.92%).

From the analysis of the main items in the consolidated balance of the system and its variations at the close of the 2017 business year, an accelerated growth in client acquisitions was evidenced, increasing by 1,043.1%, with a total of Bs. 129,916 billion at the close of 2017, caused by the expansion of the monetary liquidity in the assessed period, which resulted in rise in the share of liquid assets comprising the total asset of 25.8 percentage points in the period, until reaching 64.8%, with a balance of Bs. 93,649 billion, 96.5% of which corresponds to funds held in the Central Bank of Venezuela. This item experienced a 55.26% growth in the last month of the year and 1,887.2% in the latest 12 months.

With respect to the evolution of the gross portfolio, a yearly rise of Bs. 35,501 billion was evidenced, equal to a nominal variation of 585.3%, reaching an amount of Bs. 41,567 billion at the close of the business year. Regarding client acquisitions, a faster growth pace was evidenced in 2017 (1,043.1%), closing 2017 with a balance of Bs. 129,916 billion, as a result of the expansion of the monetary liquidity in the period assessed.

It is also worth noticing the growth in the number of depositors under the call, saving and fixed-term modalities, totaling 45,928,100 by December 2017, 52.8% of which corresponded to call deposits.

It is worth mentioning the greater capitalization of the Venezuelan financial system, with equity growing to Bs. 4,675 billion, after a rise of Bs. 4,018 billion (611.6%) in 2017.

Transactions corresponding to the 2017 year generated a net profit of Bs. 1,977.6 billion, representing an increase of Bs. 1,717.8 billion (661.2%) versus the previous year.

EQUITY SUFFICIENCY COEFFICIENTS LEVELS

According to the provisions set in Resolution No. 305.09 dated on July 09th, 2009 published in the Official Gazette No. 39230 dated on July 29th of the same year, the following principles and procedures to calculate the Capital Adequacy Ratio were established:

Capital Adequacy Ratio

Which is calculated by dividing the Book Value of Capital plus the Operative Management and the Total Value of the Assets. By multiplying the quotient by one hundred (100), it should not be less than nine percent (9%), according to the provisions published in the Official Gazette No. 40509 dated on October 1st, 2014.

Likewise, through Official Papers SIBII-GGR-GNP- 10189 dated on April 7th and SIB-II-GGR-GNP-11035 dated on May 30th, 2017, the Superintendency of Institutions in the Banking Sector (Sudeban) grants the regulatory exception to determine the Capital Adequacy Ratio, set in Article 6 of such Resolution No. 305.09, as follows:

SIB-II-GGR-GNP-10189 (April 27th, 2016)

- a) Exclude from the Total Asset, according to the definition set forth in Article 2 of the forementioned Resolution, the balance of the following items:
- Bonds and Obligations issued by the Central Bank of Venezuela.
- Placements in the Central Bank of Venezuela.
- Liquid assets of the banking Institution in the Central Bank of Venezuela (including Legal Reserve).
- Bonds and Obligations issued by state-owned oil company Petróleos de Venezuela, S.A. (PDVSA).

b) Include in the book value of capital, according to the definition set in the aforementioned Article 2, the amount corresponding to:

- General provision for credit and microcredit portfolio
- Countercyclical Provision for credit and microcredit portfolio

The amount to be included under the aforementioned provisions will be the amount corresponding to percentages established in regulations issued for such purposes by the Superintendency.

SIB-II-GGR-GNP-12738 (April 27th, 2016)

Banking institutions must include within the calculation of Tier 1 Capital (Level I), the amount corresponding to the general and countercyclical provisions.

The amount to be included under such provisions will be the amount corresponding to the percentages established in regulations issued for such purposes by the Superintendency.

SIB-II-GGR-GNP-24974 (November 22nd, 2017)

- The balance corresponding to the "Notes immediately receivable" will be deducted from the total assets, as well as the monthly variation experienced by the sub-account 111.01 "Cash" of Item 110.00 "Availabilities" of the Accounting Manual for Banking Institutions.
- For the purposes of the aforementioned monthly variation, the balance in said sub-account 111.01 "Bills and Currencies" will be considered at the close of November 2016.

Total Capital Adequacy Ratio

Which results from adding the value of Tier 1 Capital (Level I) to the Tier 2 Capital (Level II), divided by the total amount of assets and contingent operations, weighted by risk levels. The quotient obtained, upon being multiplied by one hundred, should not be less than twelve percent (12%).

The "Notes immediately receivable" will exceptionally be calculated as 0% risk-weighted items.

It should be noted that exceptions related to Official Paper SIB-II-GGR-GNP-24974 will be applicable for the indicators corresponding to the closing of the months of November and December, 2017.

Resolution No. 025.17 (March 28th, 2017)

The "Rules Relating to the Application of the Revaluation of Assets in Banking Institutions" were established through which the Superintendency of Banking Sector Institutions instructed that the amount of the Revaluation "may not exceed the total of the Primary Equity (Level I) of the Institution considering the parameters established in the Rule that re gulates the calculation of the Index of Total Patrimonial Adequacy". Similarly, indicates in Art. 6 "The record of the amount of the revaluation of assets in the Asset will be made in the accounts and sub-accounts established in the Accounting Manual for Banking Institutions, with counterpart in the account of the Equity item 351.00 "Adjustment for Revaluation of Assets".

Tier 1 Capital Adequacy Ratio (Level I)

Is the comparison between tier 1 capital and total risk-weighted assets and contingent transactions. It should not be less than 6%.

According to the provision established and based on the results obtained in June 2017 an December 2017, percentages reached are:

Description	December 2017	June 2017

REPORT OF THE HAREHOLDERS' REPRESENTATIVE

Banesco Banco Universal, C.A.

Six-month period ended December 31, 2017 • Caracas, February 09, 2018

In my capacity as Shareholders' Main Representative of Banesco Banco Universal, C.A., appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders of the Bank, held on March 30, 2016 and ratified in the General Meeting of Shareholders of the Bank, held on March 30, 2017 and in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws of the Bank, the Inter-Professional Standards for the practice of the Shareholder Representative and pursuant to provisions of Articles 287, 309 and 311 of the Code of Commerce, I hereby inform that I have analyzed the balance sheet as of December 31, 2017 and the related profit and loss statement and the distribution of net profits, the implementation of changes in equity and cash flows for the semester ended by then; attached to the report prepared by the Bank's independent certified accountants: Márquez, Perdomo & Asociados (members of Crowe Horwath International) issued on February 08, 2018 which must be considered for all purposes as integral part of this report.

During the semester ended on December 31, 2017, I attended the General and Special Meetings of Shareholders in my capacity as Shareholders' Representative, both of them held on September 28, 2017.

Management's Responsibility for Financial Statements

The Management of Banesco Banco Universal, C.A. is responsible for the preparation and reliable presentation of these financial statements in conformity with the accounting standards set by the Superintendency of Institutions in the Banking Sector (SUDEBAN), which differ in some aspects from the Venezuelan Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (VEN-NIF). Likewise, the Management of Banesco Banco Universal, C.A. is responsible for establishing the internal controls it may deem necessary for such financial statements to be free from material misrepresentations due to frauds or errors, choosing and implementing proper accounting policies, and making reasonable accounting estimates according to the circumstances.

Auditor's Responsibility

Independent certified accountants are responsible for expressing an opinion on these financial statements on the basis of their audits. They performed their audits in conformity with the International Standards on Auditing. Such standards require the compliance with ethical requirements and the execution of exams to obtain a reasonable certainty that the financial statements are free from misrepresentations of a relative importance. An audit includes procedures to obtain evidence related to amounts and disclosures shown in the financial statements.

Chosen procedures depend on the auditor's criterion and include the assessment of material distortion risks in the financial statements due to fraud or error. In assessing risks, the auditor takes into consideration the internal controls implemented by Banesco Banco Universal, C.A. to prepare and submit reliable financial statements in order to design proper audit procedures according to the circumstances, being the purpose not to make an opinion about the effectiveness of the internal control of the Bank. An audit also includes the assessment of the proper implementation of accounting policies and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the management; as well as the joint presentation of financial statements. The Bank's independent certified accountants considered that the audit evidence obtained during the revision was sufficient, proper and that it provides a reasonable basis to support their opinion.

The Responsibilities of the Shareholders' Representative

My responsibility is to make a recommendation on the financial statements based on my revision. Such revision was performed according to the scope that I deemed necessary according to the circumstances, which is substantially narrower than an audit performed according to the International Standards on Auditing, which objective is to express an opinion on the basic financial statements as a whole. Therefore, it is worth noticing that as much my revision as judgments and opinions expressed by me in this report on the financial situation of Banesco Banco Universal, C.A., as at December 31, 2017 are mainly based on the previously mentioned report prepared by the Bank's independent certified accountants: Márquez, Perdomo & Asociados (Members of Crowe Horwath International) dated on February 08, 2018.

Recomendación

In the opinion of the independent certified accountants, the previously mentioned financial statements reasonably show, in all essential aspects, the financial situation of Banesco Banco Universal, C.A., as at December 31, 2017; the results of its transactions and the cash flows for the semester ended by then, according to the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles established by the Superintendency of Institutions in the Banking Sector (SUDEBAN) for the Venezuelan banking system. For that reason, and based on the scope of my revision, as expressed in the above paragraph, I hereby recommend its approval.

Accounting Basis

Banesco Banco Universal, C.A. presents its financial statements in accordance with the Accounting Standards established by the Superintendency of Institutions in the Banking Sector (SU-DEBAN), which differ in some aspects from the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, as explained in Note 2 to the financial statements of the independent certified accountants' report. The financial statements attached to the independent certified accountants' report were prepared for the purpose of complying with the standards and practices established by such body instead of being presented according to the Venezuelan Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (VEN-NIF).

Other Matters to Be Informed

Based on the assessment of the portfolio of Credits, Interest and Commissions Receivable, and Other Assets as of December 31, 2017 shown in the Independent Certified Accountants' special report dated on February 08, 2018 to comply with the standards on six-monthly external audit reporting, established by the Superintendency of Institutions in the Banking Sector (SUDEBAN), the following provisions as at December 31, 2017 are, in my opinion, reasonable and sufficient for the purposes they were created for, according to the standards issued by the Superintendency of Institutions in the Banking Sector (SUDEBAN):

Provision for Credit Portfolio	170.895.382.372
Provision for Yields Receivable and Others	147.637.500
Provision for Other Assets	358.951.400

Likewise, based on the assessment on the security investment portfolio and its profits collectable as of December 31, 2017, the presentation, appraisal and valuation are reasonable, and in my opinion, they do not require for a provision to be made by that date.

It is worth noticing that, as part of my assessment, I performed the revision of communications sent to and received from the Superintendency of Institutions in the Banking Sector (SUDEBAN), during the semester ending on December 31, 2017.

Regarding the above, I observed that in Official Paper No. SBIF-II-GGIBPV-GIB-PV5-25861 dated November 30, 2017 the SUDEBAN informed about its considerations on communications submitted by the Bank on July 12 and August 4, 2017, with respect to the Official Paper No. SBIF-II-GGIBPV-GIBPV6-12510 dated June 23, 2017 on the occasion of the results of the General Inspection Visit paid off as of December 31, 2016; which stated, among other aspects, the following:

No confirmation was received on the custody of the security owned by the Bank in foreign currency for US$ 1,800,000.00, reported under the custody of the Standard Chartered Bank New York, on which SUDEBAN observed that communications were delivered as of December 31, 2016 and June 30, 2017 for US$ 1,700,000.00. Additionally, highlighted that Banesco Fiduciario keeps a saving certificate for a nominal value of US$ 5,756,222.20 under the custody of the aforementioned foreign bank, from which the corresponding custody certificate was not obtained. From the above, the SUDEBAN urges the Bank to carry out the required formalities in order to submit the corresponding original certificates in no longer than fifteen (15) working days; otherwise, it must proceed to create a provision on 100% of such securities. On December 26, 2017, the Bank sent to the SUDEBAN its considerations and supporting documentation of the case, and required the appraisal and verification of the ownership, existence and availability of securities in the foreign bank.

- ▶ From the above, I was able to observed that: original confirmation sent by the Standard Chartered Bank New York to external auditors, as well as securities under custody of its own portfolio and Fideicomiso Banco for US$ 1,800,000.00 and US$ 5,756,222.20, respectively.
- With regard to arguments presented by the Bank, referred to the registration in the account 122.00 "security investments available for sale" of securities issued by PDVSA, with a period exceeding a year since recorded, considerations shall be communicated in a separate official paper.

From the above, I observed that the Bank holds PDVSA securities for Bs. 5,583, which are being analyzed by the SUDEBAN.

During the cash audit performed on March 14, 2017 to materialized securities in custody of the bank entity, no verification was made on the existence of the physical document of shares from some companies and in absence thereof confirmations of custodians were found, among which Banesco Seguros, C.A., Caja Venezolana de Valores, S.A., Corporacion Suiche 7B, C.A., General de Seguros, C.A.; as well as the Corporate Registration Document of Inmobiliaria Proyecto 675271, C.A. which evidences that the Bank Entity is owner of 10,000 shares. Additionally, the Bank shall report the actions adopted to formalize the sale of interest kept in the capital of insurance companies, SOGAMPI, clubs and other private companies.

The above allowed me to observe that some shares still lack of physical documentation, with certificates, bank statements, bonds being kept from the following companies: Banesco Seguros, C.A., Corporacion Suiche 7B, General de Seguros, C.A., Provecto 675271, C.A., Mondex de Venezuela, Telares de Palo Grande, among others. Regarding the above, the Bank remarks that the issue of securities is optional or discretionary by the company, the ownership of shares being shown through the Shareholders' Book, and therefore, the Bank does not deem necessary to provide any further documentation to the documentation described above. On the other hand, it is worth noticing that I have observed the completion of the sale of SOGAMPI's shares performed on September 2017.

Reserves, provisions and allocations, as well as declared dividends and statutory allocations are in compliance with the provisions of regulations under this matter; therefore, the bank administrators have complied with their duties under the Law, the Articles of Incorporation, the By-Laws and the legal order in force.

The Bank has implemented relevant audit programs, with a view to complying with the instructions contained in the Official Paper No. HSB-200-1155 dated February 24, 1984 issued by the Superintendency of Banks and Other Financial Institutions, currently Superintendency of Institutions in the Banking Sector, (SUDEBAN) according to the Official Paper No. HSB-200-5355 dated September 13, 1984.

During the assessed period, I have not received any complaint by any shareholder or been informed by any of them about the existence of circumstances that, according to my opinion, weaken or potentially weaken the financial situation of the institution.

Based on the above exposition, I recommend shareholders to approve the financial statements of Banesco Banco Universal, C.A. corresponding to the semester ended December 31, 2017 which were submitted by the Board of Directors, as well as its administrative management.

Campaign Myths and Legends of Pensioners

Another important campaign developed during the period was the "Myths and Legends" campaign, which purpose was to assist and refute the idea the segment of pensioners has with respect to what they can or cannot do with their pension accounts.

This campaign was implemented in two stages. The first stage focused on sending information through SMS to clients, as well as on radio broadcasting in dates close to pension payment days. Subsequently, the second stage consisted in the launching of a TV commercial leveraged in a clever use of humor. Thus, Banesco urged pensioners not to be afraid of losing their money if they do not withdraw it the same day this payment is deposited in their accounts. This campaign was also supported by messages sent through the social networks.

First steps were taken to incorporate this promotion into the business ecosystem of our branch network as optimization strategy in the community segment, which will be achieved in the first quarter of 2018.
